- c) A leave of absence for a second (2nd) and subsequent consecutive term shall be granted in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) subject to operational requirements.
- d) All benefits of the Employee shall continue in effect while the Employee is serving as President, and, for such purposes, the Employee shall be deemed to be in the employ of the Corporation.

- i) The Union shall reimburse to the Corporation the Corporation's share of contributions for U.I.C. premiums, Canada Pension Plan, Superannuation and group insurance premiums made on behalf of the Employee during the period of leave of absence.

12.7 Pregnancy Leave

- a) No employee shall be laid off, terminated or otherwise adversely affected in her employment because of pregnancy.
- b) After completion of twelve (12) months continuous employment, an employee who becomes pregnant, shall, upon request, be granted an unpaid leave of absence of up to seventeen (17) weeks as provided herein.

- f) Pregnancy leave shall end on such date not sooner than one (1) week after the date of delivery and not later than seventeen (17) weeks after the pregnancy leave began.
- g) The Corporation shall not terminate the employment of an employee who has been employed for more than twelve (12) continuous months because of the Employee's pregnancy but the Corporation may require an employee to commence a leave of absence at the time at which the duties of her position cannot reasonably be performed by a pregnant woman or the performance of the Corporation's work is materially affected by the pregnancy unless the Employer can reasonably modify the employee's duties for the period required or temporarily re-assign the employee to alternate duties. The Union shall support any modification of duties or temporary assignment as provided in this provision.

- h) Where an employee reports for work upon the expiration of the period referred to in Article 12.7 (f) above, the Corporation shall permit her to resume work in the same position she held prior to the commencement of pregnancy leave.
- i) Calculation of vacation entitlement
 - (1) In a year in which an employee is on Pregnancy leave, the period of leave is not counted as a month of service for the purpose of calculating vacation entitlement for that year, except for partial months.
 - (2) Notwithstanding (i) above, if the leave of absence commences on or after the 15th of the month, or ends before the 15th of the month, such month shall be counted as a month of service for the purpose of calculating vacation entitlement in that year.
 - (3) The period of leave shall count as service for the purpose of determining the rate at which annual vacation entitlement is earned.

The following example is provided for clarity:

An employee with 95 months of service commences a Pregnancy Leave on May 17th and returns to work on May 19th of the following year. Her 96th month of service is completed in February during the period of leave.

*Her vacation is calculated in the first year as:
1.33 days X 5 months (Jan – May) = 6.65 days vacation
(May counts as a Month of service because the leave started after the 15th)*

*Her vacation is calculated for the second year as:
1.75 days X 7 months (June – Dec) = 12.25 days vacation
(The rate is 1.75 because she completed 96 months in February; May does not count as a Month of service because the leave ended after the 15th)*

- j) Leave for illness of an employee arising out of or associated with her pregnancy prior to the commencement of, or the ending of pregnancy leave granted in accordance with Article 11, may be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Sick Leave Article.

12.8 Pregnancy Leave Allowance

- a) A full-time employee entitled to pregnancy leave under the provisions of this Agreement, who provides the Corporation with proof that she has applied for and is eligible to receive employment insurance (EI) benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act 1996, shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the Supplementary Unemployment Benefit (SUB) Plan. (Previously Appendix "A" Proposed Supplementary Employment Benefit Plan)
- b) In respect to the period of pregnancy leave, payments made according to the S.U.B. plan will consist of the following:
 - 1. where the Employee is subject to a two (2) week waiting period before receiving E.I. Benefits, payments equivalent to seventy-five percent (75%) of her bi-weekly rate of pay for the two (2) week waiting period, less any other earnings received by the Employee during the benefit period;
 - 2. up to a maximum of five (5) additional weeks, payments equivalent to the difference between the bi-weekly E.I. Benefits the Employee is eligible to receive and ninety-three percent (93%) of her bi-weekly rate of pay, less any other earnings received by the Employee during the benefit period which may result in a decrease in the E.I. Benefits to which the Employee would have been eligible if no other earnings had been received during the period.

For the purposes of this allowance, an employee's bi-weekly rate of pay is the one to which the Employee is entitled for her classification on the day immediately preceding the commencement of her maternity leave.

- c) Where an employee becomes eligible for a salary increment or pay increase during the benefit period, payments under the S.U.B. Plan will be adjusted accordingly.
- d) The Corporation will not reimburse the Employee for any amount she is required to remit to Human Resources and Skills Development Canada (HRSDC) where her annual income exceeds one and a half (1½) times the maximum yearly earnings under the Employment Insurance Act.

- e) While an employee is on pregnancy leave the Corporation shall allow the Employee to maintain group plan benefits and pension. The Employee will pay the entire cost of group plan premiums and the employee portion of the pension contributions during the period of the pregnancy leave. These Employee contributions will be deducted from the Supplementary Benefit payments made by the Corporation for up to a maximum of seventeen (17) weeks.
- f) It is understood that employees entitled to the seven (7) weeks Pregnancy Leave Allowance as provided in this Article may be eligible for an additional Parental Leave Allowance which combined with the Pregnancy Leave Allowance may result in eligibility up to a maximum of seventeen (17) weeks allowance.
- g) If the Corporation determines that any benefit paid under the plan should not have been paid or should have been paid in a lesser amount, the amount of overpayment will be recovered from any subsequent benefit payable under the plan, or by making a deduction from any future monies payable by the Corporation to the Employee.
- h) Total benefits (including the S.U.B. payment by the Corporation) are not payable for any period in which the Employee is disqualified or disentitled from receipt of benefits under the Employment Insurance Act as determined by the Employment Insurance Commission. Benefits are not payable if:
 - i. the Employee has been dismissed or suspended without pay;
 - ii. the Employee has terminated her employment through resignation;
 - iii. an application is made during a period when the Employee is currently on strike, participating in picketing or concerted work interruption;
 - iv. the Employee is on an approved leave of absence without pay;
 - v. the Employee is receiving insurance benefits under the Corporation's long term disability plan.

12.9 Parental Leave

- a) An employee who has completed twelve (12) months continuous employment and who has become a parent of one or more children through the birth of a child or children is entitled to a leave of absence without pay for a period not to exceed thirty-five (35) weeks upon giving the Corporation four (4) weeks' notice in writing of the date that the Employee will begin the leave and the date that the Employee will return to work.

- b) Parental Leave following Pregnancy leave
For an employee who has taken pregnancy leave pursuant to article (12.7), Parental Leave
 - i. shall begin immediately upon completion of the pregnancy leave and without the Employee returning to work; and
 - ii. shall end not later than thirty-five (35) weeks after the parental leave began, as determined by the Employee, subject to the notice requirements set out in
- c) Parental Leave other than in Article (12.7)
For an employee other than one to whom Article (12.7) applies, Parental Leave:
 - i. shall begin on a date coinciding with or after the birth of the child or children; and
 - ii. shall end not later than fifty-two weeks after the child or children first arrive in the Employee's home, whichever is earlier, as determined by the Employee
- d) The Corporation may require an employee who takes Parental Leave pursuant to Article (12.9 (c)) to submit a certificate from a legally qualified medical practitioner to establish the entitlement of the employee to the Parental Leave.
- e) Where an employee reports for work upon the expiration of the period referred to in Article (12.9 (c)) above the employee shall resume work in the same position the employee held prior to the commencement of the Parental Leave.
- f) Calculation of vacation entitlement
 - i. In a year in which an employee is on Parental leave, the period of leave is not counted as a month of service for the purpose of calculating vacation entitlement for that year, except for partial months.
 - ii. Notwithstanding (i) above, if the leave of absence commences on or after the 15th of the month, or ends before the 15th of the month, such month shall be counted as a month of service for the purpose of calculating vacation entitlement in that year.

- iii. The period of leave shall count as service for the purpose of determining the rate at which annual vacation entitlement is earned.

The following example is provided for clarity:

An employee with 95 months of service commences a Parental Leave on May 17th and returns to work on May 19th of the following year. Her 96th month of service is completed in February during the period of leave.

Her vacation is calculated in the first year as:

*1.33 days X 5 months (Jan – May) = 6.65 days vacation
(May counts as a Month of service because the leave started after the 15th)*

Her vacation is calculated for the second year as:

*1.75 days X 7 months (June – Dec) = 12.25 days vacation
(The rate is 1.75 because she completed 96 months in February; May does not count as a Month of service because the leave ended after the 15th)*

- g) While an employee is on Parental Leave the Corporation shall allow the Employee to maintain group plan benefits and pension. The Employee will pay the entire cost of group plan premiums and pension contributions during the period of the Parental Leave.

12.10 Adoption Leave

- a) An employee who has completed twelve (12) months continuous employment and who has become a parent of one or more children through the placement of the child or children in the care of the employee for the purpose of adoption pursuant to the law of the Province is entitled to a leave of absence without pay for a period not to exceed fifty-two (52) weeks upon giving the Corporation four (4) weeks' notice in writing of the date that the employee will begin the leave and the date that the employee will return to work. The employee may amend the notice upon giving the Corporation four (4) weeks' advance notice or as soon as reasonably practicable if the first arrival of the child or children in the employee's home is not anticipated or occurs sooner than reasonably expected.
- b) The Corporation shall require an employee who requests Adoption Leave pursuant to article 12.10 (a) to submit a certificate of an official in the Department of Community Services to establish the entitlement of the employee to the Adoption Leave.

c) The Adoption Leave:

- i. shall begin on a date coinciding with the arrival of the child or children in the employee's home; and
- ii. shall end not later than fifty-two (52) weeks from the date the adoption Leave began.
- iii. If both adoptive parents are eligible for Adoption Leave under this collective agreement the provisions of article 12.10 shall only apply to one of those employees.

d) Where an employee reports for work upon the expiration of the period referred to in Article 12.10 (c) (ii) above the employee shall resume work in the same position the Employee held prior to the commencement of the Adoption Leave.

e) Calculation of vacation entitlement

- i. In a year in which an employee is on Adoption leave, the period of leave is not counted as a month of service for the purpose of calculating vacation entitlement for that year, except for partial months.
- ii. Notwithstanding (i) above, if the leave of absence commences on or after the 15th of the month, or ends before the 15th of the month, such month shall be counted as a month of service for the purpose of calculating vacation entitlement in that year.
- iii. The period of leave shall count as service for the purpose of determining the rate at which annual vacation entitlement is earned.

The following example is provided for clarity:

An employee with 95 months of service commences an Adoption Leave on May 17th and returns to work on May 19th of the following year. Her 96th month of service is completed in February during the period of leave.

*Her vacation is calculated in the first year as:
1.33 days X 5 months (Jan – May) = 6.65 days vacation
(May counts as a Month of service because the leave started after the 15th)*

*Her vacation is calculated for the second year as:
1.75 days X 7 months (June – Dec) = 12.25 days vacation
(The rate is 1.75 because she completed 96 months in February; May does not count as a Month of service because the leave ended after the 15th)*

- f) While an employee is on Adoption Leave the Corporation shall allow the Employee to maintain group plan benefits and pension. The Employee will pay the entire cost of group plan premiums and pension contributions during the period of the Adoption Leave.

12.11 Parental and Adoption Leave Allowance

- a) A full time employee entitled to Parental or Adoption Leave under the provisions of this Agreement, who provides the Employer with proof that s/he has applied for and is eligible to receive employment insurance (EI) benefits pursuant to the Employment Insurance Act 1996, shall be paid an allowance in accordance with the Supplementary Unemployment Benefit (SUB) Plan

 - ii. up to a maximum of ten (10) additional weeks, payments equivalent to the difference between the bi-weekly E.I. Benefits the Employee is eligible to receive and ninety-three percent (93%) of his/ her bi-weekly rate of pay, less any other earnings received by the Employee during the benefit period which may result in a decrease in the E.I. Benefits to which the Employee would have been eligible if no other earnings had been received during the period.

For the purposes of this allowance, an Employee's bi-weekly rate of pay is the one to which the Employee is entitled for his/her classification on the day immediately preceding the commencement of his/her parental or adoption leave. In the case of a part-time Employee such bi-weekly rate of pay will be multiplied by the fraction obtained from dividing the Employee's time worked (as defined for the purpose of accumulating seniority) averaged over the preceding twenty-six (26) weeks by the regularly scheduled full-time hours of work for the Employee's classification.

- c) Where an Employee becomes eligible for a salary increment or pay increase during the benefit period, payments under the S.U.B. Plan will be adjusted accordingly.
- d) The Corporation will not reimburse the employee for any amount he/she is required to remit to Human Resources and Skills Development Canada where his/her annual income exceeds one and a half (1½) times the maximum yearly earnings under the Employment Insurance Act.
- e) If the Corporation determines that any benefit paid under the plan should not have been paid or should have been paid in a lesser amount, the amount of overpayment will be recovered from any subsequent benefit payable under the plan, or by making a deduction from any future monies payable by the Corporation to the Employee.
- f) Total benefits (including the S.U.B. payment by the Corporation) are not payable for any period in which the Employee is disqualified or disentitled from receipt of benefits under the Employment Insurance Act as determined by the Employment Insurance Commission. Benefits are not payable if:
 - i. the Employee has been dismissed or suspended without pay;
 - ii. the Employee has terminated his/her employment through resignation;
 - iii. an application is made during a period when the Employee is currently on strike, participating in picketing or concerted work interruption;

Within fifteen working days of receipt of such notice, the parties shall appoint, by mutual consent, a Sole Arbitrator who shall hear the case and render a decision binding upon the both parties, unless there is mutual agreement to have the grievance heard by an Arbitration Panel. Where an Arbitration Panel is chosen, each party shall nominate one Panel member and the two Panel members shall then select a Panel Chairperson by mutual agreement.

If, after the expiration of fifteen (15) working days, or such other time period as is mutually agreed between the parties, no Arbitrator (or Panel Chairperson) has been selected by mutual agreement, then the Minister of Environment & Labour of Nova Scotia, at the request of either party, may appoint an Arbitrator. SCHEDULE "B"
STORES AND OCCUPATIONAL CLASSIFICATIONS

Stores classification is based on annual net sales excluding Harmonized Sales Tax (HST) and bottle deposit; classifications shall be adjusted annually effective April 1st.

The adjustments shall be for achieving annual net sales increases as a result of growth in sales volume, over and above any element attributable to price changes. Each fiscal year the net sales target for each Classification level will be adjusted to reflect increases in the previous year attributable to price change. This calculation shall be done in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

If a store's net sales meet or exceed the target for each of two consecutive years that store shall be reclassified accordingly effective April 1st the following fiscal year.

Classification	Annual Net Sales Targets
	2009-2010	2010-2011	2011-2012
Class 1	<$3,580,000	<$3,661,000
Class 2	≥$3,580,000	≥$3,661,000
Class 3	>$7,646,000	>$7,816,000
Class 4	>$11,479,000	>$11,734,000

Spaces in this chart intentionally left blank for filling in future net sales targets as they are established.

In the event of a downward reclassification, the incumbent Employees will retain their classification and all rights to salary increases and benefits. In the event of an upward reclassification of the Store, the incumbent Employee(s) shall be reclassified to the higher classification. Appointments to reclassified stores shall be made in accordance with the revised store classification.

The following occupational classifications are related to designated store classifications where the Corporation makes appointments. Nothing in this classification restricts the Corporation in eliminating occupational classifications or making appointments where vacancies arise in the classification.

- Class 1 Store - Manager I
- Class 2 Store - Manager II
- Class 3 Store - Manager III
- Class 4 Store - Manager IV and Assistant Manager

When the Corporation appoints a Manager to one of its stores, s/he shall be appointed at the same level as that at which the store is classified. Should a store meet the required annual net sales as identified for a Class 4 Store, an Assistant Manager shall be appointed at the Assistant Manager classification.
